

DARWIN HALF-DAY CYBER SECURITY CONFERENCE

WEDNESDAY 22 SEPTEMBER 2021

Hilton Hotel Darwin

TIME	PROGRAM
8:30am – 9:00am	Registration
9:00am – 9:05am	Introduction
9:05am – 9:10am	Welcome (Virtual) Damien Manuel – Chair of the Board of Directors, AISA
9:10am – 9:15am	Opening Remarks (Recording) Hon Paul Kirby – Minister for Corporate and Digital Development, NT Government
9:15am – 9:50am	Cyber culture eats cyber strategy for breakfast (Virtual) Jacqueline Jayne – Security Awareness Advocate, KnowBe4
9:50am – 10:25am	A reality check – The cyber security industry (Virtual) Ricki Burke – Director and Founder, CyberSec People
10:25am – 10:45am	Morning Tea
10:45am – 11:20am	The silent war: Rolling with disruption Sven Ross – Executive Director, Customer - WA, CyberCX
11:20am – 11:55am	Being resilient to cyber security challenges in a practical and achievable way (Virtual) Ross Marston – Founder and Chief Security Strategist, Business Intelligence Security
11:55am – 12:40pm	Panel Discussion: Cyber crisis management: Readiness, response and recovery Moderator: Scott Beven – AISA Darwin Branch Committee Member Panel Members: 1. Dr Mamoun Alazab – Associate Professor, CDU’s College of Engineering, IT & Environment 2. Ewan Perrin – Executive Director, Department of Corporate and Digital Development, NTG 3. John Mackenzie – Founder, CyberEQ.io 4. Steven Roberts – Managing Director, One IT Services
12:40pm – 12:45pm	Closing Remarks and Presentations
12:45pm – 2:00pm	Event concludes with networking lunch and drinks

*AISA reserves the right to make changes to topics and speakers without prior notice. Unless otherwise specified AISA does not recommend or endorse information presented during the AISA conferences and events; and any opinions expressed during the conference are the presenter’s own and do not reflect the opinion of AISA.

Thank you to our sponsors

NETWORKING LUNCH

Supporting Partner

EXHIBITORS

MORNING TEA

